

Contrast to the large home is the small, jewel-box residence of Mrs. Clara Whifler, designed by her architect son, William A. Whifler. Greeting guests here will be Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson, the Per Rundbergs, Mrs. Hedy Walers, and Mrs. Sandra Oliver. Stationed in the Harry Lees' Manor Drive residence will be

Contrasts Promised in Home Tour

The Women's Architectural League and the American Institute of Architects, Northern California Chapters, will sponsor a tour of architect designed homes next Sunday from 2 until 5 p.m.

It will be a tour of contrasts in many respects. Clearly indicated is the fact that a well designed home with a coordinated garden design is ageless.

The English home of Mrs. A. A. Norton in Hillsborough is an outstanding example of this point. Willis Polk, one of the Bay Area's leading architects, designed it many years ago.

The home is beautiful in proportion, in wood finishes, and the generous use of brick throughout the home and garden give it a feeling of warmth and friendliness. Azaleas and rhododendrons bloom in profusion under the oak and pine trees.

Hosts and hostesses at this home will be Mr. and Mrs. James Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Max Garcia, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tobin, Mrs. Wendy Fairfax and James Shields.

By way of contrast in age and design is the Henry L. McIntyre home, designed by Joseph Esherick and located on New Place Road, Hillsborough.

This contemporary home is a compartmented living concept which takes the form of a trio of suites almost as self-sufficient as independent houses. Adjoining the garden-living room is a magnificent dining room which seats 32 at a formal dinner.

Mrs. McIntyre is a professional decorator and her room is an indication of her artistry. The Hosts at this home will be Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lesan, Joe Allen, Albert Thompson, Donald Loomis, Robert Kitchen, Milton Chambers and Don Stover.

As further contrast with the large homes is the small, exquisite home of Mrs. Clara Whifler, designed by her architect son, William A. Whifler. The same excellence of design is apparent in the completely convenient home where you have the feeling of empathy between the house and the Japanese garden.

Hosts will be: Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson, Per Rundberg, Mrs. Hedy Walters and Mrs. Sandra Oliver.

The Harry Lee residence on Manor Drive in Hillsborough was designed by architect Leonard Michaels. The core of the main house is a roofed, skylighted, planted atrium from which are entered the living room, dining room, family room, and bedroom wing. The home has a strongly traditional flavor without attempting to represent or copy any particular period or style. The many terraces surrounding the home indicate the family's enjoyment of the out of doors.

Hosts will be: Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Rickson, Leonard Michaels, Harry Squeri, Merrill Jew, Paul Wilson and Matthew Copenhaver.

The Louis Boiteaux home on Greenview Lane was designed by the architectural firm of Miller and Steiner and commands interest as one enters the reception hall to be greeted by a translucent

FAMOUS NAME

FAMOUS AND MERRILL

ACCESSORIES—all three stores

GIRLS' WEAR—all three stores